WARNER UNIVERSITY LIFESTYLE COMMITMENT

The Warner University lifestyle is based on the principles of the New Testament as interpreted by the Church, the University Administration, and its Board of Trustees. Each member of the University community, student, staff and faculty, is called upon to observe these Christian standards and commit themselves to the following:

To be serious in academic pursuit.
To respect God, others, and self.
To exercise care with financial responsibilities and obligations.
To be regular in church attendance and involved in community service activity.
To behave responsibly and demonstrate a Christian lifestyle.
To maintain positive health habits, abstaining from all use of alcohol, tobacco and abusive drugs.

I acknowledge that I am a non-degree seeking student and agree to live by the Warner University Lifestyle Commitment. I affirm that the statements contained on this form are true and accurate to the best of my knowledge. I further agree to complete all regular admission procedures if I seek to earn a degree. I also acknowlege that no more than 24 credit hours earned as a non-degree seeking student will apply to a degree program.
