

Chapel Schedule

Fall 2006

Chapel

Chapel is an integral part of the WSC community and meets every Tuesday and Thursday at the South Lake Wales Church of God from 9:30 to 10:30 am. It is an appointed time for the campus community to gather for worship, be challenge by the Word, and be enriched through fellowship.

Chapel Purpose Statement...

As a Christian College, Warner Southern is committed to providing bi-weekly Chapel experiences with the purpose of:

- Presenting the claims of the Gospel of Jesus Christ as recorded in Holy Scripture
- Inspiring worship and praise in order to glorify God
- Promoting faith development and Christian maturity
- Examining current issues from a Christian perspective and worldview
- Celebrating and enhancing community
- Providing opportunities to be involved in ministry to the Warner Southern Community

Pastor Brenda Snedden

Spiritual Life Week

September 19-21, 2006

Warner Southern welcomes Rev. Brenda Snedden, Senior Pastor of the First Church of God in Oil City, Pennsylvania. Brenda is a graduate of Washington Jefferson College (1984) in Washington, Pennsylvania and was enrolled in graduate courses at Southern Florida Bible College and Theological Seminary in the area of Biblical Studies and Human Resource Management.

Brenda is highly energetic and seeks to inspire, motivate, and lead others to further the cause of Christ through the local church. Her philosophy of ministry is focused on developing and mentoring leaders.

Before coming to Oil City, Brenda served as Senior Pastor in Jackson, Mississippi, and as Associate Pastor in Greensburg, Pennsylvania and Palm Beach Gardens, Florida.

Pastor Brenda and her husband David have been married for 22 years and have three children – Stephen, Rebecca, and Matthew.

Mission Statement and Goals

The mission of Warner Southern College is to provide excellence in Christian higher education through a curriculum and community that consciously integrates, models and promotes Christian faith, scholarship, and servanthood.

In pursuit of this mission, the Warner Southern College community has established the following values:

1. Help students develop a personal relationship with Jesus Christ and a Christian worldview,
2. Provide academic programs in the liberal arts and professional studies that will enable students to live effectively as Christians in a contemporary world,
3. Provide activities and experiences that will form self-sufficiency and self-discipline,
4. Integrate, model, and promote community and servanthood skills through service, cooperation and collaboration,
5. Serve as a center for developing leadership and advancing the convictions of Biblical Christianity in the Church, community, home, and workplace.

Accreditation Statement

Warner Southern College is accredited by the Commission on Colleges of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools to award the Associate, Bachelor, and Master Degrees.
